DUMMER ACADEMY.

This Institution, the oldest foundation of the kind in New England, has been in operation more than seventy years. It is situated in Newbury, (Byfield Parish) four miles from Newburyport. Three stage coaches running between Newburyport and Lowell pass by it daily, and nine or ten of the same public conveyances, running between Boston and Newburyport, pass as often within sixty rods of the Academy. The location of this school is retired, pleasant, and remarkably healthy. Pupils are prepared for College or receive instruction in the common branches of a merely English education.

VACATIONS.

The first of three weeks, begins one week before the Commencement at Cambridge. The second of two weeks, is at Thanksgiving time. The third of one week, last of February. The fourth of two weeks, last of May and first of June.

EXPENSE.

Tuition is Three Dollars per quarter. Books and Stationary supplied, if requested, and charged in the bills.

Board in good families in the neighborhood may be had for $1,50 a week. To deserving youth, in indigent circumstances, the tuition will be, in part, or wholly remitted.
